JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

VIRGINIA READMISSION—VIEWS OF THE PRESS.

The following are among the opinions of the press in regard to the passage by the House of Representatives of Mr. Bingham's joint resolution for the readmission of Virginia into the Union, without conditions. These expressions should commend themselves to the Senate, which will be called upon to act in the matter to-day:

[From the Washington Chronicle, radical.]

At the present advanced stage of the discussion, it is surely unnecessary for us to say that we heartily rejoice at the passage by the House of Mr. Bingham's terse resolution declaring Virginia entitled to representation in Congress. The exhaustive debates of the past five days have given occasion to a thorough exposition of the merits of the case, and has confirmed our previous impression that the policy of magnanimity is also the policy of justice. In the noble language of Mr. Bingham we want no more vassal States."

[From the Washington Republican.]

No subject has been more thoroughly discussed for years than this bill. This action of the House may therefore be taken as its deliberate judgment, carried out without the passion and prejudice that have too often marked kindred measures. We hope the Senate will not throw any impediment in the way of immediate settlement, but promptly agree to the bill as it passed the House, and in that way settle this difficulty. Virginia, we honestly believe, intends to act fairly and justly toward all her citizens, black and white. There is nothing to be gained by further delay, and to impose conditions will be productive of evil only, and that continually.

From the Washington Herald

We regard the deliverance of the House from the leading-strings of the obdurate obstructionists as a political phenomenon of no small significance. The result will be hailed by the country at large with general satisfaction, and, taken in connection with the complexion of feeling on the condition of the finances, presages what would seem to be a general breaking up of the severe system of political and pecuniary proscription from which the country has so long been suffering.

From the Richmond [Va.] Enquirer.

We shall be very glad if Congress shall pass this bill or the Senate bill instead of that which came from the reconstruction committee. The new conditions contained in the committee's bill have no value so far as concerns their binding effects, and they will tend to promote dissatisfaction and discontent.

Congress ought to be abundantly satisfied. They will (if Mr. Bingham's bill passes) have put upon the people of this State universal negro suffrage, and have all negroes (males twenty-one years of age) eligible to all offices and competent to sit as jurors; they will have given us the county organization article of the Underwood constitution, which throws many of the counties under the control of the negroes; they will have secured a thorough system of free schools; they will have given us a retrospective homestead exemption, they will have given us republican State officers at home, and a republican delegation (in the main) in Congress, and they will have forced on us the fifteenth amendment. We say, therefore, they ought to be abundantly satisfied with Bingham's bill. And if we get in the Union let us not make fools of ourselves. There is no sort of occasion to give a dinner. We go in—not as we went in before—but under heavy conditions.—There is nothing to make any fuss about.

[From the Petersburg Index.]

The vote of the popular branch settles the question as to Virginia's admission, for there has been a doubt, since the present assembling of Congress, that a large majority in the Senate favored the unconditional reconstruction of this State to the Union. It remains for us to discharge wisely and in good faith the obligations consequent upon that preliminary course which has produced so good a result. There is a middle course for Virginians, not dishonorable, not disloyal, which if followed will lead to true freedom and real prosperity. So mote it be.

[From the Richmond (Va.) Dispatch.]

The passage of the resolution in the House was received with applause by that body, exhibiting a very proper satisfaction at an act honorable to themselves. The admission of Virginia without further conditions is simple and exact justice now, and the House does that justice by a handsome majority. Mr. Bingham wins a rich laurel by the triumph, and entitles him to the gratitude of Virginia. There can hardly be a doubt that the Senate will pass the House resolution on Monday, and then this long trouble of reconstruction will be ended. Notwithstanding all our trials and hard usage, that day will be the beginning of a grand era for Virginia.

[From the New York Times, rep.]

There is hope for Virginia. * * * This is a triumph of the President's policy of generosity and good faith, as opposed to the narrow, persecuting and unjust propositions of extremists. For this result we cannot too heartily thank Messrs. Farnsworth and Bingham whose ability, energy and judgment have been conspicuous throughout the prolonged and, at times, irritating discussion. They were supported in the end by the most influential republicans of the House—men whose names command respect and whose votes go far towards reconciling us to less pleasant incidents of the cotroversy. With the Senate now rests the responsibility of completing or delaying the good work of Virginia's restoration.

[From the New York Tribune, rep.]

This is a vote in favor of liberality and truthfulness in dealing with a great State; and we trust it forecloses all efforts—at least, all successful efforts—to make the conditions of restoration harsh or degrading. Each side has done its utmost; the vote is the fullest taken in the House these eight years, and the republicans who voted yea had to brave the odium of voting with the democrats and against the greater number of their own party. May we not, therefore, reasonably trust that Virginia will now be allowed to come in on the conditions prescribed by Congress last spring, and without further obstruction? The Senate is expected to act on Monday; and we refuse to doubt its decision. All hail, restored Virginia.

BRANDING THEM.

The New York Post (republican) says it has no hesitation in saying that the forty-nine republicans who voted against the Virginia admission bill in the House, on Friday, "voted to break the solemnly-pledged faith of Congress and to perpetuate disunion."

The Post also publishes their names in a sort of black list, so that the people may see who they are.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 19, 1870.

"DAMNED LIE."

Reader, it is not our intention to be profane in using the caption above, but only intend to place before the eye the subject matter of the present article. The Radicals, it seems, having failed to effect their object of creating excitement, stirring up strife, and, perhaps, of producing bloodshed, by passing the military bill, for the better accomplishment of their nefarious political purposes, now seem determined to reach the same end by exciting discussion, recital of imaginary outrages, and such harangues as have a tendency to array race against race. And all this while the people are moving on peacefully and quietly; at least as much so as in any other State or community, and wondering what all the stir and hullabaloo means.

The "Hon." James Harris, colored, member of the House for Wake, charged us with falsehood, in his speech in the House, on Monday. He said the editor of the SENTINEL was at the Adjutant General's office, and was there convinced by satisfactory proof, that what he had published about outrages of the negro militia of Wake, was untrue, and that he promised to correct it and then failed to do so.

We never saw that carpet bag curse and chief of Holden's detectives, the Adjutant General, to know him, have never been in his office, nor ever spoken to him. Mr. Moore, our Local editor, being in the Capitol on business, was approached by the Adjutant General, and informed that the SENTINEL was in error as to its statements about the conduct of the Wake Militia.—Mr. Moore gave him the names of his informants, and told him he would publish any well authenticated evidence contradicting the statements that had been published.

The Adjutant General subsequently sent to our office a copy of the militia law, showing, or intending to show that Gov. Holden had not sent the negro militia to Scott's, but that a Magistrate, under the authority of that law, had done it, together with some statements of his own in regard to the alleged outrages of this negro militia in the neighborhood. This not being considered well authenticated refutation of the facts that had been stated by respectable citizens of that neighborhood, was not published. Respectable white men of Wake county will now testify to the truth of the statements made in the SENTINEL.

We are not hurt by James' charge of falsehood. We have no cause of quarrel with him, his race or color. When we owned slaves we did not whip them nor sell them; since they have been free, we have had no harsh or hard feeling towards them, nor shall we be provoked into any.

We are not apt to notice what the vulgar say of us, especially when they use offensive language. Friday Jones was induced once, in the Standard, to use indecent language towards us, but we heeded him not. The next thing we saw was, Bryan Lunn charging uncle Friday with hypocrisy and deceit, and otherwise gravely impeaching his christian character. We thought it might be envy on the part of Bryan, because of Friday's high place in the affections of "our beloved Governor." We hope Bryan is mistaken in his estimate of uncle Friday's christian character. And although he, (Friday,) said ugly things of us, we call him now the most decent and appropriate of all the Governor's appointees, not excepting Judge Cloud nor "my son-in-law," the Attorney General.

To show how good natured we are under these charges of spiteful Radicals, who, we are inclined to think "know not what they do," we will mention a little incident that occurred during the late campaign, at Troy, when we had a discussion with Gen. Dockery. While we were telling the people the amount of their money that Farriss had paid out for rose bushes and other shrubbery for the Capitol Square, &c., &c., old Mr. Tryon Morris called us "a d—d liar" for saying that Governor Holden was the first man to propose the assassination of Abe Lincoln. We replied that we could prove it by Gen. Dockery, and called on him to sustain us. At first he refused to stand by us. We then called on him as our old master and political teacher to give us his hand, and as truth was in him, to testify that in this thing we had not lied. He put his hands behind him and still refused. We then threatened to tell Graham, Gilmer, Morehead, Tom Ashe, and all his old Whig friends, how he behaved towards us, in allowing us, away there among strangers, to suffer under the imputation of lying, when he knew we were telling the truth. This was more than our old friend could stand; he rose up, gave us his hand, and testified, before the crowd and old man Morris, that what we said was true, and had appeared in the columns of the Standard, in an editorial.

This hesitancy on the part of the old General was only the momentary effect of the influence of bad company, on which we, at the time moralized, we hope to his edification; showing him how he had allowed this influence to so far lead him astray that one of his own neighbors had unwittingly given him the "d—d lie."

A misguided old man in Polk county, recently, gave us the "d—d lie," but that is too long a story to tell here.

Let James remember that "curses, like chickens, generally come home to roost." Tryon Morris now says, that he begins to believe that "every word that d—d rasca', Jo. Turner, said was true."

About ten days ago, we were informed by a gentleman, who spoke confidently on the subject, that within two weeks from that time, the Radical "Ring" men in this State, would, in pursuance of a plan concocted between them and their co-adjutors in New York, take steps to repudiate the new special tax bonds of this State. That this would be done as soon as the accrued interested on bonds in the hands of certain parties was paid. The proceedings in the Legislature yesterday, verified the prediction.

On yesterday the Legislature passed a resolution instructing the Treasurer not to pay any more of the interest due on the special tax bonds. This extraordinary move is not understood by many outside of the "Ring." This is the explanation, briefly: the "Ring" have used the bonds, and can't account for them. This resolution will have the effect, and is so intended by its real authors, to put the bonds down to five or ten cents in the dollar, and now, the "Ring," in need of the bonds to make up their accounts, will be able to buy up all that are needed, at the depreciated price brought about by this resolution; but few of the members of the Legislature understood its purpose, or knew where it came from. Even its author did not know its design. However innocent may have been the intention of the Legislature, this resolution is the handiwork of the "Ring," to make money and to save themselves when the day of reconing shall come.

If Littlefield and the "Ring" have sold the bonds held by the Western N. C. Rail road Co., as they are charged with having done, at 50 or 60 cents in the dollar, and used the money for their own purposes and Florida speculations; they can buy back the bonds, now, at 5 or 10 cents in the dollar, and be all ready to account for the bonds they have misapplied, and realize by the operation 40 or 45 cents in the dollar, on millions of the bonds.

This is wise legislation! At the last session they passed bills oppressively taxing the people; the money has been collected, and now they stop the Treasurer from paying it out! Such legislation is worthy of Chicken Stevens, Cuffee Mayo and Sleepy Downing. While the action is self condemnation by the Legislature, it will relieve the people of a burden and the "Ring" from an unpleasant dilemma.

The "Ring" will now be able to buy and pay for the North Carolina Railroad, which is the only unfinished business before the Legislature.

Hurrah for Gov. Holden and his State Printer! Hurrah for the "Ring" and the Rogues! God save the State and help a ruined people!

SOME OF THE WAYS THE MONEY GOES.

We offered some comments on this text, last Saturday. We propose to continue the subject to day by giving a few additional examples of the "economical" administration of the government, by Republicans, promised by Gov. Holden in 1868, and to show some of the ways in which the people's money goes.

Before resuming the Auditor's Report, we will mention a small item (and straws show which way the wind blows) of recent occurrence. Capitol Square comprises six acres, about half of which, at least, is occupied by the buildings and the walks, leaving about three acres for cultivation in grass, clover, flowers, shrubs, &c., for the benefit of the State. The keeper of the Capitol has recently taken it into his head to have the Square ploughed. The ploughman was engaged, scratched over the ground—the three acres—with a one-horse plough, and, what do you think, reader, he charged? Only twenty dollars! Well, the account was audited, signed and countersigned, presented at the Treasury and, protested, for the want of funds to take it up! The poor fellow, failing to get his six dollars an acre ploughing account cashed, took it to a store and traded it off for goods, at a discount.

Another little item: About the close of the last session, the Legislature, having laid a heavy tax bill on the people, and consequently, feeling rich, voted $400 of the people's money to the Reporters of the Daily Press of the city—just gave away that sum, which they had no more right to do than they had to pass a resolution requiring John Smith, of Pasquotank, to pay, out of his private funds, a hundred dollars, or four hundred dollars, to the editor or reporter of the Rutherford Star or Asheville Pioneer.

Another little item. We have watched the progress of the work going on in Capitol Square, and have made some calculations which we think approximate the truth, in regard to the expense of keeping it in order. Taking the past six weeks as a basis for the calculation, we think the cost of keeping and dressing that piece of ground will amount, during the year, to seventy-five cents per square yard.

All these may be considered very small matters, and so, perhaps, they are, but they serve as commentaries on the pledge of the Governor, that the "Republicans of North Carolina will administer the govern ment economically."

The next item of "economical" expenditure we notice is a book; a new book; a book of 61 pages, with pictures in it. This book is entitled "Report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction," by S. S. Ashley. We don't know what the embellishments of this highly interesting work cost the State, about $75, we suppose, but we think that so many school houses built on paper, and none of brick or lumber capable of accommodating even a small portion of the thousands of children of the State, who are growing up in ignorance, is, to say the least of it, very doubtful economy. By the way, we understand that the bill of the engraver for the embellishments of this new North Carolina publication, is not yet paid, for the reason that the Superintendent says it must be paid out of the general fund, while the Treasurer contends that it must be paid out of the Literary fund. Attorney General Olds has been applied to for an "opinion" on the matter, and he thinks the question is of such a complex nature as to require further legislation. The debt is about $75, the Legislature will consume at least two hours in arguing it, which will cost the State $750; thus, it will be seen that the State will have to pay $750, to determine who ought to pay $75, which $75 is contracted for pictures of school houses that it will require every cent of the school fund, as now appropriated, for the next nine years, to build. This is another specimen of the Republican economy that was promised us by the Governor.

We are not yet done with the subject.—We intend to show the people how the hard earned taxes that was dragged from them by this economical administration, have been frittered away, little by little, in foolish, extravagant, useless expenditures. Little drops compose the great ocean; little particles combined, make the tall mountains, and so, little expenditures, here and there, constantly accruing, make the vast sum of money wasted by the present Radical administration, until all is gone and the State bankrupt—so bankrupt that the Treasurer can't pay twenty dollars for ploughing the three acres of the Capitol Square!

A SCALAWAG IN A NEW ROLE.

For the Sentinel.

RALEIGH, Jan. 17th, 1870.

Editor Sentinel:—I chanced to be a passenger on the mail train from Goldsboro' to this place, on Saturday night last, where I was witness to a piece of most infamous conduct on the part of a member of the Legislature towards two young ladies, who were traveling in charge of the Conductor. This man, or animal in shape of a man, while the Conductor was in another coach, approached these young ladies, and by the most infamous proposals, so alarmed and frightened them that the younger fainted, and it was some time before she could be restored. The elder of the girls appealed to the Conductor for protection, and the insulter was seized and carried to another coach, instead of being pitched neck and bee's off the train, as several thought he ought to have been. I forbear to give the name of the miscreant who committed the outrage, but there were a number of passengers on the train from any of whom you can obtain the name and all the particulars.

yours, VIATOR.

We had already learned the facts alluded to by our correspondent. The perpetrator of the vile act is an ex-Confederate Colonel, ex-parson, almost ex-U. S. Revenue Assessor, Radical J. P., and present member of the Legislature.

He is represented to have been drinking on the occasion, and his conduct such as to richly deserve the severest punishment.—We think such men ought to be so marked as to be known and spit upon and kicked, whenever they dare show their faces among decent people.

In his conduct on this occasion, he was but carrying out, as many others have done, or attempted to do, the vile and infamous suggestions of the article "Work," which appeared in the Standard, in the days of "N. Paige & Co.," just as have Ireds have carried out the suggestions of the odious "Legislative address," by burning and stealing throughout the State.

No doubt this chivalrous and dignified member of our Radical Legislature, retired to his Hotel, on his arrival in Raleigh, snoozed off his drunk during the Sabbath, put on his clean shirt Monday morning and repaired to the House ready to record his vote in favor of the bill for the repression of outrage and disorder in the State.

We have some curiosity to know the feelings and views, of his fellow members, towards him, when they come to hear of this little adventure of his, and to what extent in that direction an "honorable" member may go, before he is considered unworthy a seat in such a grave and dignified body of gentlemen as a Legislature of the State ought to be.

We have stated the facts without giving the name of this woman insulter, because we believe it due to decency and good morals that such men should be held up to public scorn and condemnation.

We suggest to the "honorable" gentleman that he introduce, immediately, and push through rapidly, a bill in the Legislature providing for the punishment of such scoundrels as dare to insult unprotected ladies, traveling on railroads, as we believe there is no such law, at present, on the statute books; for we think the gentleman likely to need such a law to protect him from the vengeance of the young ladies' friends, who, in the absence of such remedy, might feel inclined to take the law in their own hands.

A notice of this affair was prepared by our Local Editor, for Tuesday morning's issue, giving the name of the perpetrator of the vile act. On our arrival at the office on Monday evening, he approached us and solicited us to postpone the article one day, to give him a chance to disprove the statements; we acceded, against advice and with reluctance to the request. He has not disproved them, and the article is now inserted, after being so changed as to leave out his name, which we do, only, out of regard to his family, who are nice people.

Any statement to the effect that we offered any sort of compromise in the matter, which we hear he has made, is false.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The Court met at 10½ o'clock, A. M.

In case of State vs. Albert Magnin for assault and battery the Defendant submitted. Sentence reserved.

State and Rabey Penny vs. Penny, Bastardy. Jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

A large portion of the day was consumed in calling witnesses, preparatory to sending them before the Grand Jury.

"HON." JAMES AND SLEEPY DOWNING.

Sleepy Downing was thoroughly aroused, yesterday, by the action of the Legislature suspending the payment of interest on the special tax bonds. He was the only member who spoke or voted against the resolutions. This, we suppose, was owing to the fact that he had received some suggestions from the spirit land.

James Harris, col., said, If the Penitentiary bonds had been issued and the interest paid on them, it was "a cheat and a wrong," and as such he denounced it.—James ought to know, for he, with Downing, Lassiter, Cebe Harris and company, made the bargain with Poyn for 8000 acres of land on which to locate the Penitentiary, to pay for which the bonds were issued.

Now, Downing, James has come out like a man and denounced one of the frauds, do yourself the justice to come out and denounce the other, to-wit, the purchase itself.

By the way, we see from the Auditor's report, that Mr. Lassiter got $41 "for locating" that Penitentiary on Deep River—don't you think, Sleepy, that this ought to be denounced, too.

Tribute to Hon. Thomas Ruffin.

MEETING OF THE BENCH AND BAR.

At the appointed hour, 3 o'clock, on Monday evening, there was a full attendance of Judges and lawyers, in the Supreme Court rooms, assembled to do honor to the memory of the illustrious dead, and to give a public expression of their sympathy with the bereaved family.

The Bar of North Carolina was well represented in those present, for many of the most talented were there; but, one of its noblest representatives, the Hon. B. F. Moore, was absent, he being one of the pall bearers at the funeral of the Hon. Thomas Ruffin. It was a matter of regret that he was not here present, to lend his voice in praise of the great and good man, whose funeral obsequies he was, at the time, attending.

The meeting was called to order by the Hon. William H. Battle, and, upon motion, the Hon. Richmond M. Pearson, was appointed chairman and the Hon. Sam'l. F. Phillips, Secretary. The chairman was conducted to the chair by the Hon. Dan'l. M. Barringer.

Upon motion, by the Hon. William H. Battle, a Committee, consisting of the following gentlemen, was appointed by the chairman, viz: Hon. W. H. Battle, Hon. Edwin G. Reade, Hon. Thos. Bragg, Hon. Sam'l. W. Watts and Hon. A. S. Merrimon, to draw up resolutions suitable to the occasion,

The Committee submitted the following preamble and resolutions which were read aloud to the meeting, by the Hon. W. H. Battle, and unanimously adopted:

"The members, officers and Bar, of the Supreme Court, and of the Superior Court of Wake county, now in session, having heard of the death of the Hon. Thomas Ruffin, are impelled by a sense of duty to his memory, to give a public expression of the feelings which the sad occasion has excited.

They cannot forget, if they would, that the State has lost one of her most distinguished citizens, and the United States one of her most eminent jurists. Strong natural talents, improved by assiduous culture, brought Mr. Ruffin, at an early period of his life, into public notice. The Speakership of the House of Commons, the election to a Judgeship of the Superior Courts at two successive periods, and the Presidency of the principal bank of the State, marked his upward career, until he reached with general approbation, the Bench of the Supreme Court, of which he was soon after made Chief Justice. How he demeaned himself in that high office is well known throughout the land. His judicial opinions are read with admiration by all who have occasion to consult them, and are often quoted with approbation by Judges in other States, and by the ablest law writers of the Union.

Standing pre-eminent as a jurist, he was not less distinguished in the more private walks of life. As an agriculturist he had few equals in skill, and no superior in his devotion to that art. Living for a long period near one of the most public highways, his home was the seat of unbounded hospitality. In the relations of friendship he was faithful and true, and in the sweet intercourse of domestic life, he was all that a devoted wife and affectionate children could desire. To crown all, he was a Christian gentleman.

Therefore, Resolved, That the members of this meeting will wear the usual badge of mourning during the present term of the Supreme Court and the Superior Courts.

2. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased by the Chairman of this meeting.

3. That a copy of the resolutions be presented to the Supreme Court, and the Superior Court of the County of Wake, with a request that they be entered upon the minutes of their respective Courts.

The resolutions being read, the Attorney General, Lewis P. Olds, addressed the meeting in a few appropriate remarks, alluding to the fact that North Carolina always stood pre eminent for two things, particularly; the honor and honesty of her citizens, and the ability and integrity of her Judiciary. And that Thomas Ruffin stood first among North Carolina's most honest and honorable citizens, and the greatest and wisest of all the great and wise Judges who have presided in her Courts of Justice for the last hundred years.

Mr. Olds having concluded, Hon. Dan'l. M. Barringer paid his tribute of praise to the illustrious name of Thomas Ruffin, in a short, but well-conceived and well spoken address. He spoke of Mr. Ruffin's great abilities, his spotless integrity, his unblemished honor, his Christian purity, his patriotism and his public services rendered the State. He had known him long, had known him as a student, as a practitioner at the Bar, as Judge on the Bench, as President of the Bank, in private and in public, and he had never seen a more remarkable man, physically and intellectually; that North Carolina had sustained a great loss, for she has lost one of her greatest, noblest and most distinguished sons.

After the conclusion of Mr. Barringer's remarks, the resolutions were adopted and the meeting adjourned.

SUPREME COURT.

Tuesday, Jan. 18.—Court met pursuant to adjournment.

The following gentlemen of the Bar were in attendance, viz: Ex-Gov. Graham, Hon. W. H. Battle, Hon. Thos. Bragg, Hon. B. F. Moore, Hon. S. F. Phillips, Hon. James M. Cloud, Col. W. P. Bynum, and Messrs. John Norwood, John Manning, Geo. V Strong, V. C. Barringer, C. M. Busbee and Ike R. Strayhorn, Esqrs.

Cases from the third and seventh Districts were called and disposed of as follows:

Brevard vs. McDowell, from Lincoln.—On motion by W. P. Bynum, Esq., counsel for the Plaintiff, dismissed at cost of Plaintiff.

The business of the morning hour being concluded, the Hon. Wm. H. Battle, stated to the Court that at the meeting of the Bar on yesterday, he was appointed, as Chairman of the Committe on resolutions, to lay before the Court, the resolutions adopted at the meeting. He then proceeded to read the resolutions, (which will be found reported in another column.)

Mr. Battle made a short address to the Court in eulogy of the character and services of the late ex-Chief Justice. His remarks were touching and appropriate.

The Chief Justice, from his seat on the Bench, replied in the following remarks: "Gentlemen of the Committee, the Justices of the Court concur in the sentiments expressed by the resolutions you have presented.

To a vast fund of legal learning and remarkable faculties of perception and of reflection, Thomas Ruffin united a power of application and mental endurance, by which he "built for himself a monument more lasting than brass." As long as the Reports of Deveraux, Deaveraux and Battle, and Iredell, are extant, it will be known that his was a master mind, which made its mark upon the Jurisprudence of our State.

Chief Justice Ruffin during a long lifetime, filled a large measure of usefulness, and achieved a reputation as a jurist, which is justly a matter of pride to our profession.

The Clerk will record the resolutions."

Court then adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock, A. M.

In this connection we will mention, indeed, we introduced the subject for the purpose of mentioning, that a gentleman of this vicinity has sent on for some weeding hoes, of superior quality, for his own use, and while at it, he got some extra. With one of these hoes a hand can do a third more work in the day, and do it with a third less labor, than with the heavy, dull, cumbersome hoes in common use. Health's Best Defence.

"The weak eateth herbs," says St. Paul, so that eighteen hundred years ago the value of medicinal plants was appreciated. In the Old Testament botanical remedies are repeatedly recommended, but in no passage of sacred history is man recommended to swallow calomel, or blue pill, or any other mineral preparation. The sick were directed to eat herbs to strengthen them, to purify them, to heal them, to restore them. In that day the art of making vegetable extracts was unknown. The herbal medicines were mere infusions.

It was reserved for a later age to unite the sanitary essences of tonic, aperient and antibilious roots, barks, and plants, with an active stimulant, and thus secure their rapid diffusion through debilitated or disordered system. The crowning triumph of this effective mode of concentrating and applying the virtues of medicinal vegetables was achieved in the production of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Never before had a perfectly pure alcoholic stimulant been combined with the expressed juices of the finest specifics of the vegetable kingdom. Never yet, though eighteen years have elapsed since its introduction, has this great restorative been equalled. It is taken at all seasons, in all climes, as the most potent safeguard against epidemics, as a protection against all unhealthy exhalations that produce debility or beget disease; as a remedy for intermittent and other malarious fevers; as an appetizer; as a sovereign cure for dyspepsia; as a general tonic and invigorant; as a gentle, painless aperient; as a blood depurent; as a nervine; as a cure for billious affections; as a harmless anodyne; and as the BEST DEFENCE OF HEALTH under unfavorable circumstances, such as sedentary pursuits, undue bodily or mental exertion, hardship, privation and exposure.

NIGHT SESSION.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, Jan. 15th.

The evening session was occupied in discussion of the "war bill."

Mr. Pou gave notice of an amendment to the bill, in regard to the oath of jurors called to try cases that may be removed from one county to another under the provisions of the bill.

Mr. Nicholson then took the floor in opposition to the measure, carefully reviewing each section, and showing the unwarrantable license it gave to officials to exercise tyranny over the citizens of the State. His speech was a lengthy and able one, and we would be glad, would space allow, to give a full synopsis of it. Perhaps we may do so hereafter.

Speeches were also made by Messrs. Ingram, Ragland, Harris, of Wake, col. and Cuffie Mayo, col. the latter of whom made such a display of argument and eloquence, as to dispose the House to adjournment, which, on motion, accordingly took place.

On motion of Mr. Love the rules were suspended in order to consider it at once.

Resolved, by the Senate and the House of Representatives that the Treasurer be instructed and directed not to pay any more interest on the special tax bonds, until authorized and directed so to do by this General Assembly.

Mr. Shaffner, offered the following amendment: Provided, That this resolution shall not apply to the payment of interest on the special tax bonds sold before the 20th of Dec. 1869, the holders of which, shall before receiving the interest make affidavit that they are bona fide purchasers, and were so on the 20th of Dec. 1869.

A. H. Galloway, col., moved to lay the amendment on the table, which was lost.—The amendment, however, was rejected and the Resolution passed its second reading by a vote of 32 yeas, 7 nays.

Mr. Cook moved that its further consideration be postponed until to-morrow which was lost, and the bill passed its third reading by the following vote:

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The bill (war) to secure the better protection of life and property.

Mr. Hodnett spoke to some length in opposition to the bill. He thought the adoption of his resolution drafting an address to the people of the State, appealing to them to preserve peace and good order would have a much better effect than the adoption of this bill.

Mr. Hodnett continued to some length in portraying not only the unconstitutionality of the bill but the bad and disastrous effects which would most probably follow its adoption.

Hudgins, col., followed in support of the bill. He thought the provisions of the bill would suit every dishonest man &c. &.

Mr. Shaver said:

I have consumed but very little of the time of this House, so I trust you will permit me to make a few remarks upon this important subject. As to this militia bill, I am opposed to it upon principle.—I do not and will not attempt to discuss the whole merits of this bill, but will simply make a few remarks. It is true, Mr. Speaker there has been one very objectionable feature stricken out of this bill; but it is still very odious to my mind. I do not approve of the whole country having to suffer on the account of a few lawless men. Must we give the Governor the whole power to declare any county in a state of insurrection or rebellion, thereby overpower civil power by military usurpation. Mr. Speaker, I ask, cannot the civil laws be enforced? I submit it has been stated on this floor it cannot, but not to my satisfaction. Has any one, I ask, resisted? If so, is there not a law already in force, sufficient to reach them? I think so, I can say for my mother county, Rowan, of which I have the honor to be one of her representatives, give us the arm of civil law, it is all we ask; and should this bill pass, I do not know that it would affect us, or in other words the people of my county. But, Mr. Speaker, I am not only representing the people of Rowan, but of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker and gentleman of this honorable body, what might be the result if this bill should pass. God only knows, I cannot say.

Why Mr. Speaker, I have been very much disgusted at the remarks of some gentlemen on this floor about secret political organizations. Charging the Democrats with the K. K. K. Why Mr. Speaker I am proud to say I am a Conservative, yes some call me a Democrat, but Sir I care not for names. Well Sir while a great many old Democrat Demagogues as I have a right to believe have gone to the Radical party, it may be that they have not all gone there, and it may be that some few have organized themselves into what is called the K. K. K. This I am not able to say, but if so I think if the civil law is impartially executed we can get along without a military despot.—Mr. Speaker I know it has been stated on this floor that in some counties a jury cannot be found that will do justice; so it may be. Now Mr. Speaker, I will tell you I believe political secret organizations to be injurious to any community. Now Sir I know of but one secret political organization in this country, (that is to my knowledge) of whom I speak.

Is it the K. K. K.? no Sir, this I have no experimental knowledge of, and God forbid that I ever should, but Sir, I have a knowledge of one secret political organization with its secret bound oaths (very well.) The question might be asked what organization was that? The U. L. (very well) what about the obligations, (was it not this) when a man went to be initiated into that order of things, he would first have an opportunity of hearing the Constitution; read is this not so? (yes) then what, next? Take what they call a solemn oath, (or what,) that they would never reveal any of the pass words or signs to any living soul in the known world (yes Sir) and if he did, what was the penalty? (death) so it was, here on at least one occasion as well as many others, sprang a question how was that penalty to be, and now could it be executed? The question was answered in the affirmative, it could and would, but there was a more serious question yet; but suppose the party was detected, (very well we have the assendency and we can pack a jury who will acquit us,) this was the answer, after swearing to support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution and laws of North Carolina.

Now, Sir, why will men get up here and talk about secret political organizations to men who are opposed to and believe such organizations to be injurious to any community? And, yet, those very men, who have so much to say about secret polical organizations, belong to one themselves, and probably they know the danger of such. Yet, I do hope this bill will not pass, for I fear it will result in no good, but much evil, for it does seem to threaten war. We have, as I think, had war enough, I always was opposed to war, to am I yet, therefore, "Let us have peace."

Mr. Candler (Republican) opposed the bill and thought that if the good people of both parties would unite in frowning down all outrages, that no outrages would be committed. This bill was putting too much power in the hands of one man. He knew the people were opposed to such a bill. No proof had been produced to show that the execution of the law had been resisted in any single county of the State. No civil officer had proclaimed his inability to enforce the law. He opposed the 3rd section of the bill which gave the Solicitor, so much power. This was setting a precedent dangerous to the liberties of the people, and should be at once voted down. There was too much bitterness between the two parties and this bill was the result of that bitterness. He thought the passage of the bill would tender the incitiment of ill feeling and strife, not to say anything about its unconstitutionality.

Mr. Candler spoke to some length in opposition to the measure.

Mr. Downing argued in favor of the bill. He used the same line of argument employed at the introduction of the bill, and during his argument detailed how colored voters had been intimidated in Asheville, and one of them shot down in the streets of Asheville at an election.

Mr. Candler, (Republican,) Representative of Buncombe co., said that that matter had been thoroughly investigated and he (Candler) had been informed by the Solicitor a republican, that the disturbance was attributable to the hostile demonstrations of colored republicans in that place against one of their own race who expressed a determination to vote with the Democratic party. He (Candler) thought the blame was equally divided.

Mr. Welch next took the floor in opposition to the bill. He also stated the facts in relation to the alleged outrage at Asheville. He took up the bill section by section and discussed its merits in a legal and constitutional point of view and portrayed the bad effects the bill, if passed, would most likely have.

He charged that it was designed to intimidate Conservative voters at the next election and to unite the colored people against the whites.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting a resolution that the Public Treasurer be instructed and directed not to pay any more interest on the special tax bonds until authorized, and directed so to do by this General Assembly.

Mr. Pou moved to postpone the bill under discussion (war bill) and consider the resolution just passed by the Senate and transmitted to the House.

Mr. Downing moved to adjourn.

The yeas and nays being called the House refused to adjourn by a vote of yeas 9 nays 75.

The motion of Mr. Pou, postponing the consideration of the militia bill was put to a vote and adopted.

Mr. Vest (Republican) said he was the last man in the House to advocate anything like repudiation. He was one of the number who voted in good faith for the issue of bonds that had by hasty legislation (he was bound to admit,) placed in the hands of parties who had abused the trust in a most shameful manner. He thought it the imperative duty of members in justice to the tax-paying people of the State to vote for this resolution, &c.

Mr. Downing characterized the movement as direct repudiation, and put into motion by certain parties to break down the Republican party.

During his remarks, Mr. Welch asked him (Downing) if the Treasurer was not paying interest on the Penitentiary bonds.

Mr. Downing, I do not know, you better ask the Treasurer.

Mr. Welch, I have been reliably informed by a member of the House, that interest is being paid on these bonds.

Mr. Moore, of Chowan said that for his own information, he had sent to the Treasurer to ascertain the facts in regard to the interest on the special tax bonds, and had just been informed that while they were debating this resolution, the holders of coupons were drawing very rapidly, he, therefore, thought it important to concur in the passage of the resolution immediately. It was only a temporary injunction on the Treasurer; they could hereafter pay the bona fide holders, &c.

Harris, of Wake, col., was in favor of the resolution, and denounced the payment of interest upon the Penitentiary bonds as a great wrong upon the State and a fraud and a swindle.

The resolution then passed its second reading by the following ballot:

NAYS.—Mr. Downing.

On motion of Mr. Durham, the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its third reading.

Mr. Barnett offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That notice of the passage of this resolution be sent to the Treasurer, instructing him to cease at once to pay further interest on special tax bonds.

The rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Pou moved that a Committee of three be appointed to wait upon and notify the Treasurer of the action of the House in this matter. Carried.

On motion, the House then adjourned until half past 7 o'clock.

Coin in Treasury $85,000,000 cash, and $50,000,000 gold certificates, currency 37,000,000.

Great interest is manifested in the Virginia question; to-day no progress was made, and no exertion beyond Sumner's philippic against Gov. Walker. Butler and Bingham were on the floor of the Senate urging their respective views.

The Virginia question was resumed and Thayer concluded his speech. Nye followed in a very strong speech—Congress must be true to Virginia and to itself, whatever Virginia may do in the future. Drake followed against admission; Stewart followed in favor; Morton of Minnesota followed in favor, and was interrupted by a motion to adjourn, which prevailed. A proposition to fix the time to-morrow for a vote was hooted down.

In the House the League Island Navy yard and appropriations were considered throughout the day; nothing whatever of general interest.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astra" Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

TO COTTON AND TOBACCO PLANTERS AND CORN AND PEANUT GROWERS.

The Norfolk Oil and Fish Guano COMPANY'S

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO,

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertiliser. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Leberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the preference made in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer

J. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

Orders promptly attended to, addressed to any of our leading Commission Merchants or to Gen'l Agents office over Gwatmey Bros & Co., new Warehouse on Town Point, Norfolk, Va.

WE PROPOSE TO RENEW THE PUBLICation of the "PRIMITIVE BAPTIST" upon the following terms, commencing, if we shall receive sufficient encouragement, in the month of January, 1870:

The "Primitive Baptist" will be published semi-monthly on every Thursday before the second and fourth Sundays in each month, twenty-four numbers constituting a volume—for One Dollar and Fifty Cents in greenbacks, or One Dollar in gold payable, in all cases, in advance.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 580 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
